Weak, Nervous Men!

YOU have been humbugged by the "Electric Pills," "Yellow Pills," "Rheum Gravel," "Gripes," "Piles," "Varicose Veins," "Green Pills," "Quacks," and who have found yourself growing older and weaker. YOU who have given up in despair, saying "I am doomed, there is no hope for me!" to you I say, who are sinking into an early grave, or drifting upon a sea of sickness and misery, I say, "STOP! THERE IS HOPE! THERE IS A CURE!"

PERFECT MANHOOD RESTORED

Write me a full history of your case, and the QUERENT LIST and 100 Page Book. My responses are bound up, my mail is great. I have cured thousands. I CAN CURE YOU. Twenty years' experience. IF AFFLICTED, send me before taking treatment elsewhere. Consultation personally or by mail, free and secret. Satisfaction or money refunded. Write to C. G. H. (addressed). A prompt letter may direct you to HEALTH.

Investigation Postponed.

Last evening the council committee on fire department met and audited bills aggregating $244.94. The removal of Thomas Ross from the Eighth ward engine force was to have been investigated, but the hearing was postponed until next Monday evening, when a number of witnesses will be examined.

Benjamin Springer Dead.

Mr. Benjamin F. Springer died yesterday morning at his home east of Triadelphia, aged nearly 60 years. He was an old and highly respected citizen, and his death caused genuine sorrow in a wide circle of friends. The funeral will take place from his late home at 1 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday, the interment being at the Stone Church cemetery.

Eggs Away Up.

The cold snap has brought the price of eggs away up, higher than they have been quoted here for several years.

Yesterday's wholesale quotations were 30 cents per dozen and at retail they sell at an advance of five cents over that

at wholesale was 27 cents, three cents lower than they are now selling at. The supply is very scant.

A Large Sizable Police Court.

The police court yesterday was what the boys would call a dandy. The cases in all numbered thirty-one. Among these were those from the police shops, the first that were ever brought before the mayor in his career, though police has been much in evidence in Wheeling for several years. The proprietors were fined $20 and costs and the writers $5 and costs. The three landladies of houses of ill fame also paid $20 and costs and the inmates $5 and costs.

Ladies of the G. A. R.

James A. Garfield Circle No. 1 will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at half past two at G. A. R.

hall, February 13. A large attendance is desired of members, as the national president, Mrs. Nettie E. Gunlock, is expected to make a visit, as it is her intention to visit every circle in the United States.

Lucy B. Hayes Circle No. 2 will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday evening at Handlan's hall, Eighth ward, February 13, at half past seven o'clock.

All members are requested to be present.

Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Mary C. Saadden, most worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, of the General Grand Chapter of the United States, arrived in the city last evening, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McFadden, of South Eoff street. Mrs. Saadden will make a short address this evening in the Masonic Temple on the aims and objects of the order, and it is hoped the Masons and their families in general will be present to listen to the address and to become acquainted with her. She will also exemplify the work in the afternoon, and be tendered a banquet by the members about 6 o'clock in the evening.

In the Circuit Court.

In the circuit court yesterday, in Judge Campbell's part, the motion for a new trial in the case of E. M. Atkinson vs. C. A. Seabright was overruled, and judgment was given on the jury's verdict for $48.22 with interest from December 4. In the case of Edward Newton, jr., vs. the Wheeling Railway Company, both parties withdrew their motions for a new trial and judgment was given for $150 and interest from February 11.

In Judge Paul's court the case of the Kliefers-Kraft Co. vs. S. S. Bloch was reset for hearing April 17.

The plaintiff dismissed his action in the divorce case of John W. Morris vs.

Annie E. Morris.

Chapman's Bronchial

A REGULAR meeting of the city council will be held this evening.

Last evening the council committee on salaries met and elected Walter Wills chairman.

The price of oysters has been advanced on account of the extreme cold weather in the east and the difficulty in keeping up the supply.

A SMALL boy named Bonnie Walker was lost from his home in the Second ward yesterday, and was found by a policeman in North Wheeling.

LOUISA JENESKY yesterday qualified as executrix of the will of John Jenosky, deceased; bond $400; no security required by the terms of the will.

W. J. W. COWDEN was yesterday appointed administrator of the estate of Bridget Briesoch, deceased, and gave bond in the sum of $200, with W. M.

Dunlap as surety.

IRMA GRAY was arrested yesterday on a charge of assaulting Wilbur Jacobs, on January 6, and Joe Spicer on a charge of being drunk, both on warrants issued by Squire Gillespie.

JOHN OULBAY and Margaret Whis-son were arrested by Constable Morris last evening on a warrant issued by Squire Rogers, charged with adultery.

The hearing was set for to-day.

A MASQUERADE ball is to be given by the Bright Light club, of the East End, at the Beethoven hall Friday evening.

There will be a grand lamb walk, a

A CONTRACT was closed yesterday for the performance of "Robin Hood" and

"The Knickerbockers" by the Bostonians at the Park Casino, for the benefit of the Wheeling lodge of Elks, May 20 and 21.

Last night Wheeling Union Chapter

No. 1, Royal Arch Masons, held its monthly meeting at the Masonic temple and took in six new members. After the proceedings the members took supper at Vankouron's.

record a deed made February 19 by George K. Wheat and wife to James A.

Henry, for $5 and other considerations, lot 15, on the west side of Elizabeth street, in J. & J. R. Baker's addition.

The "Shield and Anchor," the official organ of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, has made its appearance. Its columns are devoted to the interests of the organization, and embrace much valuable information regarding the new jurisdiction of the order in this state.

The initial number contains the portrait of the man who will administer the affairs of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in the state for the first year, together with brief biographical sketches. The new publication is ably edited by Samuel A. Kepner, and promises to take a place in the front rank of journalism.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks

Abroad.

John Lewis, of Wellsburg, is visiting friends in Wheeling.

M. C. Girder, of Sisterville, was at the Windsor last night.

Harry Paul, of the Eagle glass works,

Wellsburg, was here yesterday.

C. A. Barnett, of Mannington, autographed at the Windsor yesterday.

W. M. King, of Grafton, was in the city yesterday and figures on the Win-dors register.

H. W. Johnson, of Mannington, and

H. H. Largey, of Morgantown, were guests at the Stamm.
